

Marshall Hawkins, Sundance Photography

Award-winning freelance photographer, Marshall Hawkins of Sundance Photography is well-known for his commercial, branding, portrait and wedding imagery. With over twenty years of experience in the Oklahoma City and Midwest Markets, he prides himself on client communication and bringing the vision of each project to life. In 2018, Marshall was voted “Best Photographer of the 405” by readers of 405 Magazine and his work currently appears in monthly publications, including the Outlook Magazine and the Oklahoma Restaurants Association (ORA) Magazine.

Hawkins created Sundance photography in 2009 and has partnered with Anglin PR in capturing ribbon cuttings, ground breaking events, portrait and commercial photography for a variety of public, private and nonprofit clients.
